

Mobility Innovation Alliance Japan

Purpose

“Mobility Innovation Alliance Japan” has been newly established, with the following ambitions;

- Contribute to better well-being by mobility-related technology development and social innovation
- Discover & foster cross-sectional research theme and launch social implementation
- Create academic researcher-led collaboration platform involving public and private sectors

Activities

Towards mobility innovation, we will address to;

Formulate cross-sectoral academic activities for mobility innovation

Study & make proposal on cross-ministerial policy & social infrastructure

Create collaboration opportunities bridging diverse researchers, industries and public sectors

Promote international joint research through international workshop in Japan

Integrate technologies and societal changes for mobility innovation

Foster young researchers and start ups by holding contests & awards

Mobility Innovation Alliance Japan

Date of establishment: July 1st, 2022

Location: Institute of Industrial Science, The University of Tokyo
4-6-1 Komaba, Meguro-ku, Tokyo 153-8505 Japan

Chairman: Hajime Amano (Former ITS Japan President, former visiting professor, the University of Tokyo)

Vice-chairman: Prof. Yoshihiro Suda (Director, Mobility Innovation Collaborative Research Organization, The University of Tokyo (UTmobi))

Website: <https://mobilityinnovationalliance.org/en/>

